

Best of Memphis • Food & Drink

BEST PLACE FOR PEOPLE-WATCHING

1. Flying Saucer
2. Beale Street
3. Young Avenue Deli — tie — The Peabody

Maybe it's the hot girls in plaid skirts or the huge selection of beer. Or maybe it's the prime location in Peabody Place one block over from Beale, where a constant stream of tourists wanders to and fro. Whatever the case, the Flying Saucer downtown is the best place to sit back and people-watch.

BEST PATIO

1. Celtic Crossing
2. Boscos Squared
3. Café Ole

Located in the heart of Cooper-Young, Celtic Crossing's patio always has been a popular outdoor spot. With a newly revamped enclosed patio, the comfort level for dining and drinking was taken up a few notches, and Memphis likes the change.

BEST PLACE THAT DELIVERS

1. Young Avenue Deli
2. Garibaldi's Pizza
3. Camy's

Some days you don't want to leave your couch. When hunger strikes, Memphians love a tasty "Sam I Am," a hot roast-beef sandwich, or a California pita delivered right to their door. Oh, and don't forget a side of Young Avenue Deli's famous fries. It's quick and easy, and there aren't any pots and pans to wash.

BEST BAKERY

1. La Baguette
2. Atlanta Bread Company
3. Fresh Market — tie — Brother Juniper's

Take a handful of local food lovers, add a dash of entrepreneurship, et voila! C'est magnifique! C'est délicieux! C'est La Baguette. High school French aside, readers love the traditional French pastries, breads, and croissants available near the main library on Poplar. After 25 years of bringing Continental confections to Memphis, La Baguette is still a favorite.

BEST LOCAL COFFEEHOUSE

1. High Point Coffee
2. Otherlands
3. Java Cabana

The aptly named High Point Coffee gives Flyer readers a nice alternative to that big, corporate coffee shop which shall remain nameless. With a wide selection of coffees, teas, and eats, High Point also has the environment of a warm, neighborhood coffee shop. Local art, Wi-Fi, and comfy chairs add to the ambience.

BEST RESTAURANT

READERS' CHOICE

- Circa
Erling Jensen, the Restaurant
Majestic Grille
McEwen's on Monroe
Tsunami

From the regional fusion food at McEwen's and the Majestic to the Continental flair of Erling Jensen and Circa to the fantastic seafood at Tsunami, our readers like to keep their options — and mouths — open.

BEST NEW RESTAURANT

1. Restaurant Iris
2. Café Eclectic
3. Elfo's — tie — Muddy's Bake Shop

With a chef who hails from southern Louisiana, the authentic Creole cuisine at Restaurant Iris makes our readers' mouths water. It could be chef Kelly English's experience at the Culinary Institute of America and cooking in Spain and France. It could be the design of the restaurant by Memphis native Jackie Glisson, winner of HGTV's Designers' Challenge. Or maybe it's that the restaurant serves the tastiest "knuckle sandwich" you'll ever eat.
